

Mi libro para niños Proyecto

First and foremost, this project is about reading strategies. I do NOT want your strategy to be a translator! The learning is in the process.

Step one: Select a book and do a first read (before you do anything else). Don't worry about what you do or don't understand. Just read it all the way through.

Step two: Do a second and third read looking for the main ideas & plot of the story to fill out the bottom & back of this page.

Step three: Now that you know the story, start working on your reading. Practice it with your partner, plus two other classmates, reading the whole thing aloud to them. Have them sign & comment below.

My partner: _____
What is one thing I could do better?

Listener #2: _____
How is my pace? Do I read too fast or too slow?

Listener #3: _____
Do I speak clearly enough for you to understand me? What would help?

Book Title:

Author:

Difficulty level for me (1-10):

Why?

Why did I choose this book? Was it the best choice for me?

Main characters:

Basic plot line of the story (English is fine, but it must be a paragraph or two):

Words I learned by... (Spanish & translation)

Cognate

Context

Dictionary